Katrina Denise Brown is a young woman of God who excited about severing The Lord. She's an active member of the Woodland Park Church of Christ. Katrina is the daughter of Sister Sara Brown and the late Brother Julius Brown. She spends her free time teaching and ministering to young girls and women from all over the country. Sister Brown, started a weekly Tuesday Night Ladies Bible Study via conference call. The ministry celebrated its sixth year on Oct 24th. Katrina does not consider herself a speaker, but an evolving woman of God who has a profound love for women's discipleship. Katrina enjoys steering other believers toward a more intimate relationship with God. Professionally, Katrina is the supervising staff attorney for a Birmingham Nonprofit. Of all the titles that she has acquired over the years, Katrina believes the greatest title she could ever wear is servant of the most High God.
